APPOINTMENT OF SPECIAL DEPUTY AND OATH OF OFFICE

KNOW ALL PERSONS:

That I, Arian Noma, Prosecuting Attorney for Okanogan County, State of Washington, have this day, pursuant to RCW 36.27.040, appointed Pamela B. Loginsky, WSBA No. 18096, of the Washington Association of Prosecuting Attorneys, my true and lawful Special Deputy for the limited purpose of representing the State of Washington in the Washington appellate courts in any actions related to State of Washington v. James John Faire, Washington Court of Appeals No. 36249-3-III.

Pamela B. Loginsky may only perform additional tasks, services or duties with my express written authorization.

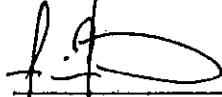

This appointment shall commence on June 25, 2019, and shall continue until the conclusion of services as described above, except as follows:

This appointment is made pursuant to Herron v. McClanahan, 28 Wn. App. 552 (1981), to address a conflict of interest. If the services described above have not been concluded, I may only refuse to reappoint Pamela B. Loginsky at the beginning of any subsequent term of office for cause and with the permission of the superior court. If the services described above have not been concluded, I may only revoke the appointment for cause and only with the permission of the superior court.

The conflict necessitating the appointment of Pamela B. Loginsky is personal.

With this appointment I give Pamela B. Loginsky full power and authority to do and act in my name the same as I would in law be empowered to do if personally present for the expressed purposes described above.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunder set my hand this 25th day of June, 2019.
