

Dave,

I am almost at a loss of words which we both know is almost impossible. I cannot thank you enough for the love and support you have shown me since October 31, 2017. That will always be the date I will remember that changed my life.

I sincerely appreciate you taking me on this wild journey and welcoming not only me but my family into yours. The undoubted support I receive from you is priceless and I would not be who I am today without it. You have helped me find my voice, courage and passion. I know I am a work in progress sometimes daily and I thank you for taking that challenge on.

I appreciate you more than words can say. Thank you for helping me realize who I am, what I love and create a future I can't wait to be a part of. Thank you for dealing with all of my crazy and helping to control it. Thank you for guiding me on this roller coaster ride we are on.

You always say you have put too much on me and I think I do the same to you. What I have realized and want you to see as well, is we both lean on the other to get through what life throws at us. I will always be there for you.

October 31, 2017 was meant to happen. Neither of us knew or expected it to turn into hopefully another 20 years (with a better less dramatic ending) but here we go! Thanks for not giving up on me.

You Ann and Logan are My PEOPLE and I love you all unconditionally.

Here's to unleashing the BEASTS!

Love,
Shannon